We are now back in Ordinary Time. This name comes not from the fact that it is “ordinary” but rather that it comes from the word “ordinal” which means numbers in a series. As an example, today we celebrate the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time. Last weekend we had a meeting for Lectors (also known as Readers), and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EM for short). The requirement for a Lector is that you can read in front of people, and for EM that you have been Confirmed. If you could not make the meeting or would like to do either of these things, please let me know and I will provide the needed information. We will also do a three-month schedule and provide a list of individuals so you can find replacements. If you don't want your phone number or email on this list, please let me know as soon as possible—as in by Monday. On February 1st we will have a meeting for those who would like to be altar servers. This will be immediately after the 9:30 AM Mass. This is for anyone in the third grade and up. Please let me or Jami know so we can put your child on the schedule.
