This Sunday is Laetare Sunday. Along with Gaudete Sunday in Lent this is one of two times during the year that the priest wears rose vestments. This Sunday is a little bit of a break towards the middle of Lent when we focus on the fact that Lent is a means, a means to the true goal of the Resurrection and Easter.

This weekend Land of Peace will be here at the back of the church with their olive wood religious articles that support the Christians of the Holy Land. Please support this engendered Christian community.

Next week, on Friday, March 20th, the Men's Club will be having the 5th Annual Glen Spaulding Memorial Fish Fry. Please plan on coming and spread the word to everyone that you know.
