A reminder of a couple of things as we move into October:

First, if you haven't received it already, you should receive a letter from Bishop Siegel about the Catholic Ministry Appeal. As the name suggests, this helps fund the operation of our diocese. This covers everything from the expense of preparing seminarians and diaconate candidates for ordination, to supporting our religious education programs and parish operations. As a parish, we have a fixed amount that we are responsible for as a parish. If we raise more than that, we keep the excess; if we are under that amount, then we are responsible for the difference. So, in practical terms, the money you give stays here.

As I have mentioned, all parishes in the diocese have switched to Flocknote as our operating database. If you haven't logged in to see your information, you can do so at:

<https://stpetercatholicchurch8.flocknote.com/home> If you have been joining us and would like to register as a parishioner, you should be able to do so at that link.
